In its most controversial form, this argument contends that the enlightened self-interest of Asia's major states should be harnessed towards forming a concert of powers, an institutionalised strategic order echoing that of Europe in the nineteenth century.

Submarines are, in effect, Australia's first line of defense.

Jennifer Rutledge: Australia seems to be in a rather strange and unique position.

and capabilities should Australia invest in? Culturally, the Royal Australian Navy is an heir to Marines into Darwin? President Obama's visit to Australia was, I think, very significant.
