Babbage acknowledges, constrains Canberra s ability to even discuss, much less pursue the option.

The basic ingredients, among other things, would involve: plenty of land-based air-power; a large, robust submarine fleet; advanced mine-warfare capabilities; a constellation of satellite, maritime surveillance aircraft and land-based radar; and, to the extent surface combatants remain secure and cost-effective, a fleet of Fast Attack Craft armed with high-speed anti-ship missiles.

That would mean allowing others to do the balancing on our behalf, preserving the best possible relations with each major player without over-committing to any thereby minimising the risks to ourselves of being dragged prematurely into conflict or intense competition.

of the commitments it accepts and what they mean for its long-term political relationship with

For many Australians, all of this is good news.

Japan, Taiwan, South Korea, even the United states each finds itself in the similarly peculiar position of being economically enmeshed with its major strategic competitor.
