predominance, and the reality of Washington s receding power, Harry contends that Australia and other U.S. Of course, it would still be an onerous undertaking.

and Defense Studies Centre, ANU, an editor at the Lowy Institute for International Policy, and Ross Babbage wrote a recent article in The Diplomat advocating for U.S.

It s time to begin planning for alternatives.

and, in my view, unfortunate organizational preference.

In war, by prosecuting sea-denial operations within or beyond the archipelago to Australia s north, they drive up the costs and risks of power projection in areas that could become staging points for an attack on Australia.
