Finally, and perhaps most importantly, the fundamental rationale for a powerful submarine fleet is to augment Australia's independent strategic weight that is, to fulfil Canberra's longstanding requirement of being able to defend the Australian continent without relying on the combat forces of another country. primacy fades, Canberra could find itself either having to assume a much greater burden on behalf of the alliance or learning to expect much less out of it or, perhaps, both at once.

So, while it's very important, I'm not holding my breath.

strategy which is not, frankly, a self-evidently prudent course for Australia to take.

More immediately, as I wrote in The Diplomat, the atmosphere of veneration in which Obama
