worse, and that the costs of Canberra s alliance are going up both in terms

In this sense, Australia can and should take advantage of the opportunity to remain aloof from Asia s power politics to the greatest possible extent.

Riley Clendo:What are the needs of Australia s navy going forward? Do you feel it British nuclear submarine purchases or leases.

Second, Australia s retains an abiding political allergy to all things nuclear, which, as Dr.

regional partners now face a quandary: how to navigate between their economic interests, increasingly aligned with Beijing, and their strategic instincts, which pull them towards Washington.

That would mean using disruptive technologies to exploit Australia s geographical advantages in ways that raise the costs and risks to hostile forces seeking to project air or land power in the vicinity of Australia s air and maritime approaches or in the approaches to the archipelago to its north.
