More immediately, as I wrote in The Diplomat, the atmosphere of veneration in which Obama Geography dictates that the U.S.

So, while it s very important, I m not holding my breath.

Finally, and perhaps most importantly, the fundamental rationale for a powerful submarine fleet is to augment Australia s independent strategic weight that is, to fulfil Canberra s longstanding requirement of being able to defend the Australian continent without relying on the combat forces of another country.

There are three problems, however.

and survivability by dispersing them on a greater number of smaller, more stealthy platforms.

primacy fades, Canberra could find itself either having to assume a much greater burden on behalf of the alliance or learning to expect much less out of it or, perhaps, both at once.

strategy which is not, frankly, a self-evidently prudent course for Australia to take.

strategic primacy in Asia.

if not strengthened it.
