strategy which is not, frankly, a self-evidently prudent course for Australia to take.

Yet I must admit to growing doubt regarding the viability of achieving strategic stability.

primacy fades, Canberra could find itself either having to assume a much greater burden on behalf of the alliance or learning to expect much less out of it or, perhaps, both at once.

China is Australia s largest trading partner, but just recently reaffirmed its strategic alliance with the U.S.

The visit included stopovers in Canberra and Darwin, the two places most pertinent to a new bilateral defense arrangement, and a speech in which Obama reasserted U.S.
