In buying or leasing British or American SSN s, Australia would find itself almost completely beholden to the goodwill of a foreign power for its basic defense, with potentially deleterious implications for its policy of national self-reliance.

This piece was originally published in The Diplomat Tweet TuesdayNov152011 Interdependence and the Limits of Pnyx - comment on global security and politics - Pnyx Pnyx Pnyx The Blog Pnyx s visit took place obscured the fact that the region really is changing for the It s time to begin planning for alternatives.

Japan, India and the countries of Southeast Asia have a much more immediate stake in containing the reach of Chinese power.

Ross Babbage wrote a recent article in The Diplomat advocating for U.S.

predominance, and the reality of Washington s receding power, Harry contends that Australia and other U.S.

First, they are not presently available, and there are few signs that Washington or London would be prepared to transfer their most cutting edge nuclear propulsion and defence technology to any country, even a close ally like Australia.

Of course, it would still be an onerous undertaking.
