It s time to begin planning for alternatives.

Japan, India and the countries of Southeast Asia have a much more immediate stake in containing the reach of Chinese power.

Ross Babbage wrote a recent article in The Diplomat advocating for U.S.

predominance, and the reality of Washington s receding power, Harry contends that Australia and other U.S.

First, they are not presently available, and there are few signs that Washington or London would be prepared to transfer their most cutting edge nuclear propulsion and defence technology to any country, even a close ally like Australia.

Of course, it would still be an onerous undertaking.
