As a relatively small power, Australia may one day be forced to choose between the United States and China. A small detachment of U.S.

Image by flickr user Storm Crypt Harry White offers a provocative analysis of the challenges

Indeed, Australia s defense minister Stephen Smith has already categorically ruled out nuclear propulsion.

One option, recently mooted by ASPI s Andrew Davies, is to build a new class

Of course, a coherent force structure such as this would require a considerable increase in Australian defence expenditure.
