predominance, and the reality of Washington s receding power, Harry contends that Australia and other U.S.

In buying or leasing British or American SSN s, Australia would find itself almost completely beholden to the goodwill of a foreign power for its basic defense, with potentially deleterious implications for its policy of national self-reliance.

Of course, it would still be an onerous undertaking.

This piece was origially published in The Diplomat Tweet TuesdayNov152011 Interdependence and the Limits of and Defense Studies Centre, ANU, an editor at the Lowy Institute for International Policy, and s visit took place obscured the fact that the region really is changing for the and, in my view, unfortunate organizational preference.
