President Barack Obama reviews Australia's Federation Guard, November 2011 Thomas Pinkerton: How do you view the recent visit by U.S.

Whether this is possible will obviously depend on specific design parameters of the platforms themselves, and in particular on whether they can operate far enough forward to thwart inter-archipelagic supply lines and fulfil Australia's longstanding strategic objectives in Southeast Asia.

rate out of proportion to Western forces ability to defend against them, Australia is undertaking

Harry's solution echoes the strategic agenda advocated by several commentators, myself included: Washington's allies must seek to bind the U.S.

In terms of Australia's future submarine capability, Dr.

Do you feel this is the right approach? Would a home grown diesel submarine with advanced AIP capabilities work better? With Canberra scheduled to introduce 12 new submarines over the next few decades, Dr.

needs to develop anti-ship missiles to keep up with other nations in Asia? Do you

How does Australia reconcile such a position? Does Australia have to make a firm choice one way or another?

Interestingly enough, Australia's strategic dependence on the United States and economic dependence on China isn't all that unique.

To this end, Washington would use all elements of its power, including its alliances, to preserve an unambiguous hierarchy intended to leave Beijing in no uncertain terms about the costs and consequences of adventurism.
